

The People Who in Darkness Walked (verses 1 and 4)

by John Morrison, 1781

The people who in darkness walked have seen a glorious light;
the heav'nly dawn broke forth on those
who dwelt in death and night,
who dwelt in death and night.

His righteous government and pow'r shall over all extend;
on judgment and on justice based,
his reign shall have no end,
his reign shall have no end.
